Brighten Up Harvest Friday 13th Oct

Children (and staff) can come to school wearing silly socks/tights.

They can donate a tin/packet of dried food for our harvest collection.

Or they can donate £1 for the Brighten
Up Harvest CAFOD fund (hurricane help).

October is the Month of the Most Holy Rosary.
If you would like the children and staff to say a Rosary for a member of your family or a friend
please return the slip below to Miss Duffy.

I would like a Rosary said for

.....

Or

My friend / family member

Next Week ...

Kirkby Boys

Congratulations to Sean, Luke and Charlee who have been selected to play for Kirkby this season.

Safe Places

Yr 6 were discussing the importance of different ways to keep themselves safe with me last week.

They discussed safe places.

Take a moment to talk about safe places with your child or ask them do they know where safe places are.

Next Week is Healthy

Eating Week

There will be healthy fruit shakes available for children to purchase and sample at lunchtimes.

More information to follow for each year group.

Remember
"Safety is the key.
It's up to you and me!"
